Do You Remember . . .

College is more than an institution of learning. It is a foundation for new experiences and social maturity. Throughout the year there have been many events at V. I. which have helped us to grow both spiritually and socially.

Arrival day in September with its varied emotions and registration day with its frustrating schedules are unforgettable events in the life of each student.

The campus was soon stirring with the spirit of class competition as the Song Contest deadline drew near and seniors emerged victorious. The theme of the Christmas formal, "Pink Prelude," added a touch of fantasy to the holiday air. The Effigy Hunt and the Junior-Senior basketball game were additional prompters of the fine art of sportsmanship.

Let us not exclude our inspirational reflections as we recall the magnitude and influence of Religious Emphasis Week.

With the advent of spring came Publications Weekend and, finally, Graduation Day. Again the varied emotions poured forth as we bid farewell to V. I. Thus are the events which helped us to practice the finest art of all — the fine art of friendship.

The Fine Arts

This spacious, well-lighted gallery in the Arts Center features a half-dozen one-man shows, and as many group shows, each year.

Dedication

Behold the gentleman in his variations of versatility:
As respected reverend of esteemed command,
worthily receiving our confidence and concern.
As our friend, amicably adaptable to any atmosphere,
deeply devoted to our betterment.
As repairman of televisions and troubles,
appliances and affliction.
As prankster equipped with a sly smile inevitably to become a broad grin.

Who says of himself, "I have been rode hard and put up wet."
For your inspiring influence, optimistic open-mindedness,
and unassuming attitudes,
For your broadening our horizons of Biblical history,
culture, and worldly wisdom,
For your optimism and faith in us which have revitalized us for the challenges ahead.

This is our tribute,

Dr. Louis H. Taylor

The Fine Art of GUIDANCE

Dear Seniors:

As you assume your rightful place in society, you will soon become aware of the fact that education itself is inadequate for the tasks which lie ahead. You will also come to realize that the need for leadership in all areas of human relations is greater now than in any previous period in history. It is my hope that at this time you will dedicate yourself to the purpose of achieving as high a degree of maturity as possible in all of the different areas of development and life. Only this would be a worthy application of what you have accomplished thus far.

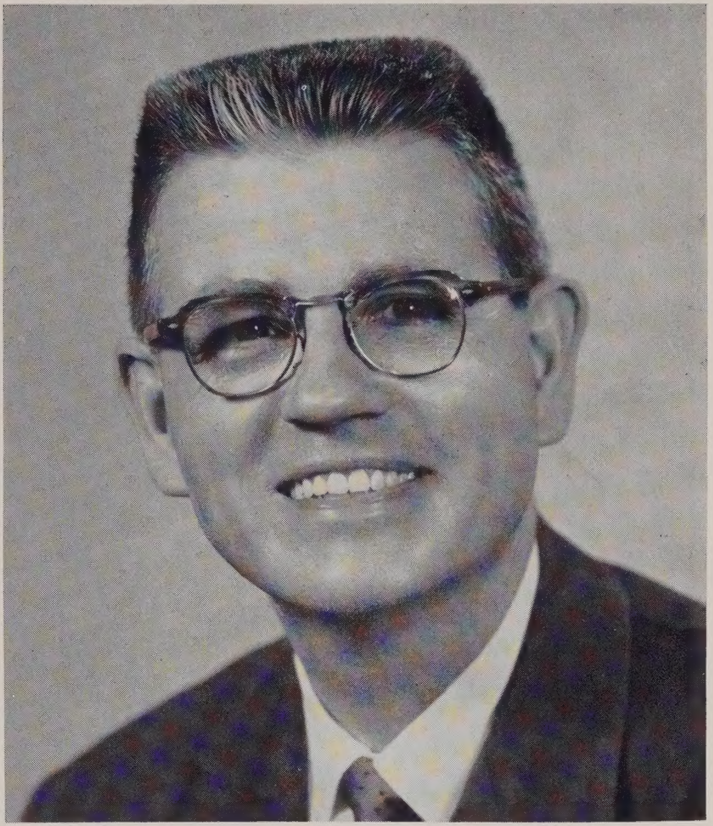
My very best wishes to you for the future.

Cordially yours,
Floyd V. Turner
President

Mr. Carl E. Todd

As you go to another college, pursue a vocation, or marry, many new challenges will be encountered. Face them calmly, and with deep thought conquer them in ways which please you deeply. Never forsake your honor for God-given gifts with others—then life will be sweet and have fervent meaning for you. God bless you all as you continue to make a good life for yourselves.

Most cordially,
Carl E. Todd
Dean of the College



Miss Louise Brewer

Dear Seniors:

As you go from Virginia Intermont to take your place in the world, I wish for you success and happiness. May you take with you memories of good times, good friends, and a job well done. May you find interesting work to do and have the strength to do it well. May you have the faith and courage to meet and overcome the problems which you will have to face.

Sincerely,
Louise Brewer

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

NANCY HENRY

The Student Government is composed of every student at Virginia Intermont; its main objective is, therefore, to further the best interests of the student body. Doing this, it strives to secure cooperation between different organizations and to promote responsibility, self-control, loyalty, and honesty among the students.

The focus point of the Student Government is found in the Student Council, a group composed of the Student Government officers, the presidents of each hall, a day student representative, and three second semester juniors. Throughout the year these girls devote themselves to helping each student find her place at Virginia Intermont, leading or giving advice whenever called upon.

OFFICERS

Nancy Henry . . . . President
Ann Vaughan . . . . Vice-President
Sandy Whitmore . . . . Secretary

HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor Council, the backbone of the Honor System, serves as a judicial board in determining infractions of the Honor System. This organization strives to encourage all students to attain mature judgment in governing their actions.

The membership includes the Academic Dean, the Dean of Women, four other faculty members appointed by the President of the college, the President of Student Government, the Presidents of the Senior Class and Junior Class, and the President of the Hall on which the girl appearing before the Honor Council lives.

DEAN BREWER, DEAN TODD, MRS. WILLETT, NANCY HENRY, JANICE RANSON, JUDY BOLIN, MR. WARD, MISS COULTER, MR. OWENS, MR. COOKE, KAREN HOKE.

Senior Class Proclamation Song

We are living
and we are learning
to keep our hearts here forever turning toward Her high standards and goals of courage and love.

Our Alma Mater
We'll hold forever,
our admiration
and our endeavor;
Long may we strive on to keep Her banners our pride.

V.I.C. long may She stand for loyalty and service grand;
What God has wrought long may it be a guiding light for all to see.

We will leave Her forget Her never;
Our hearts and spirits will stay forever.
She'll be the ideal of strength and guidance to us.

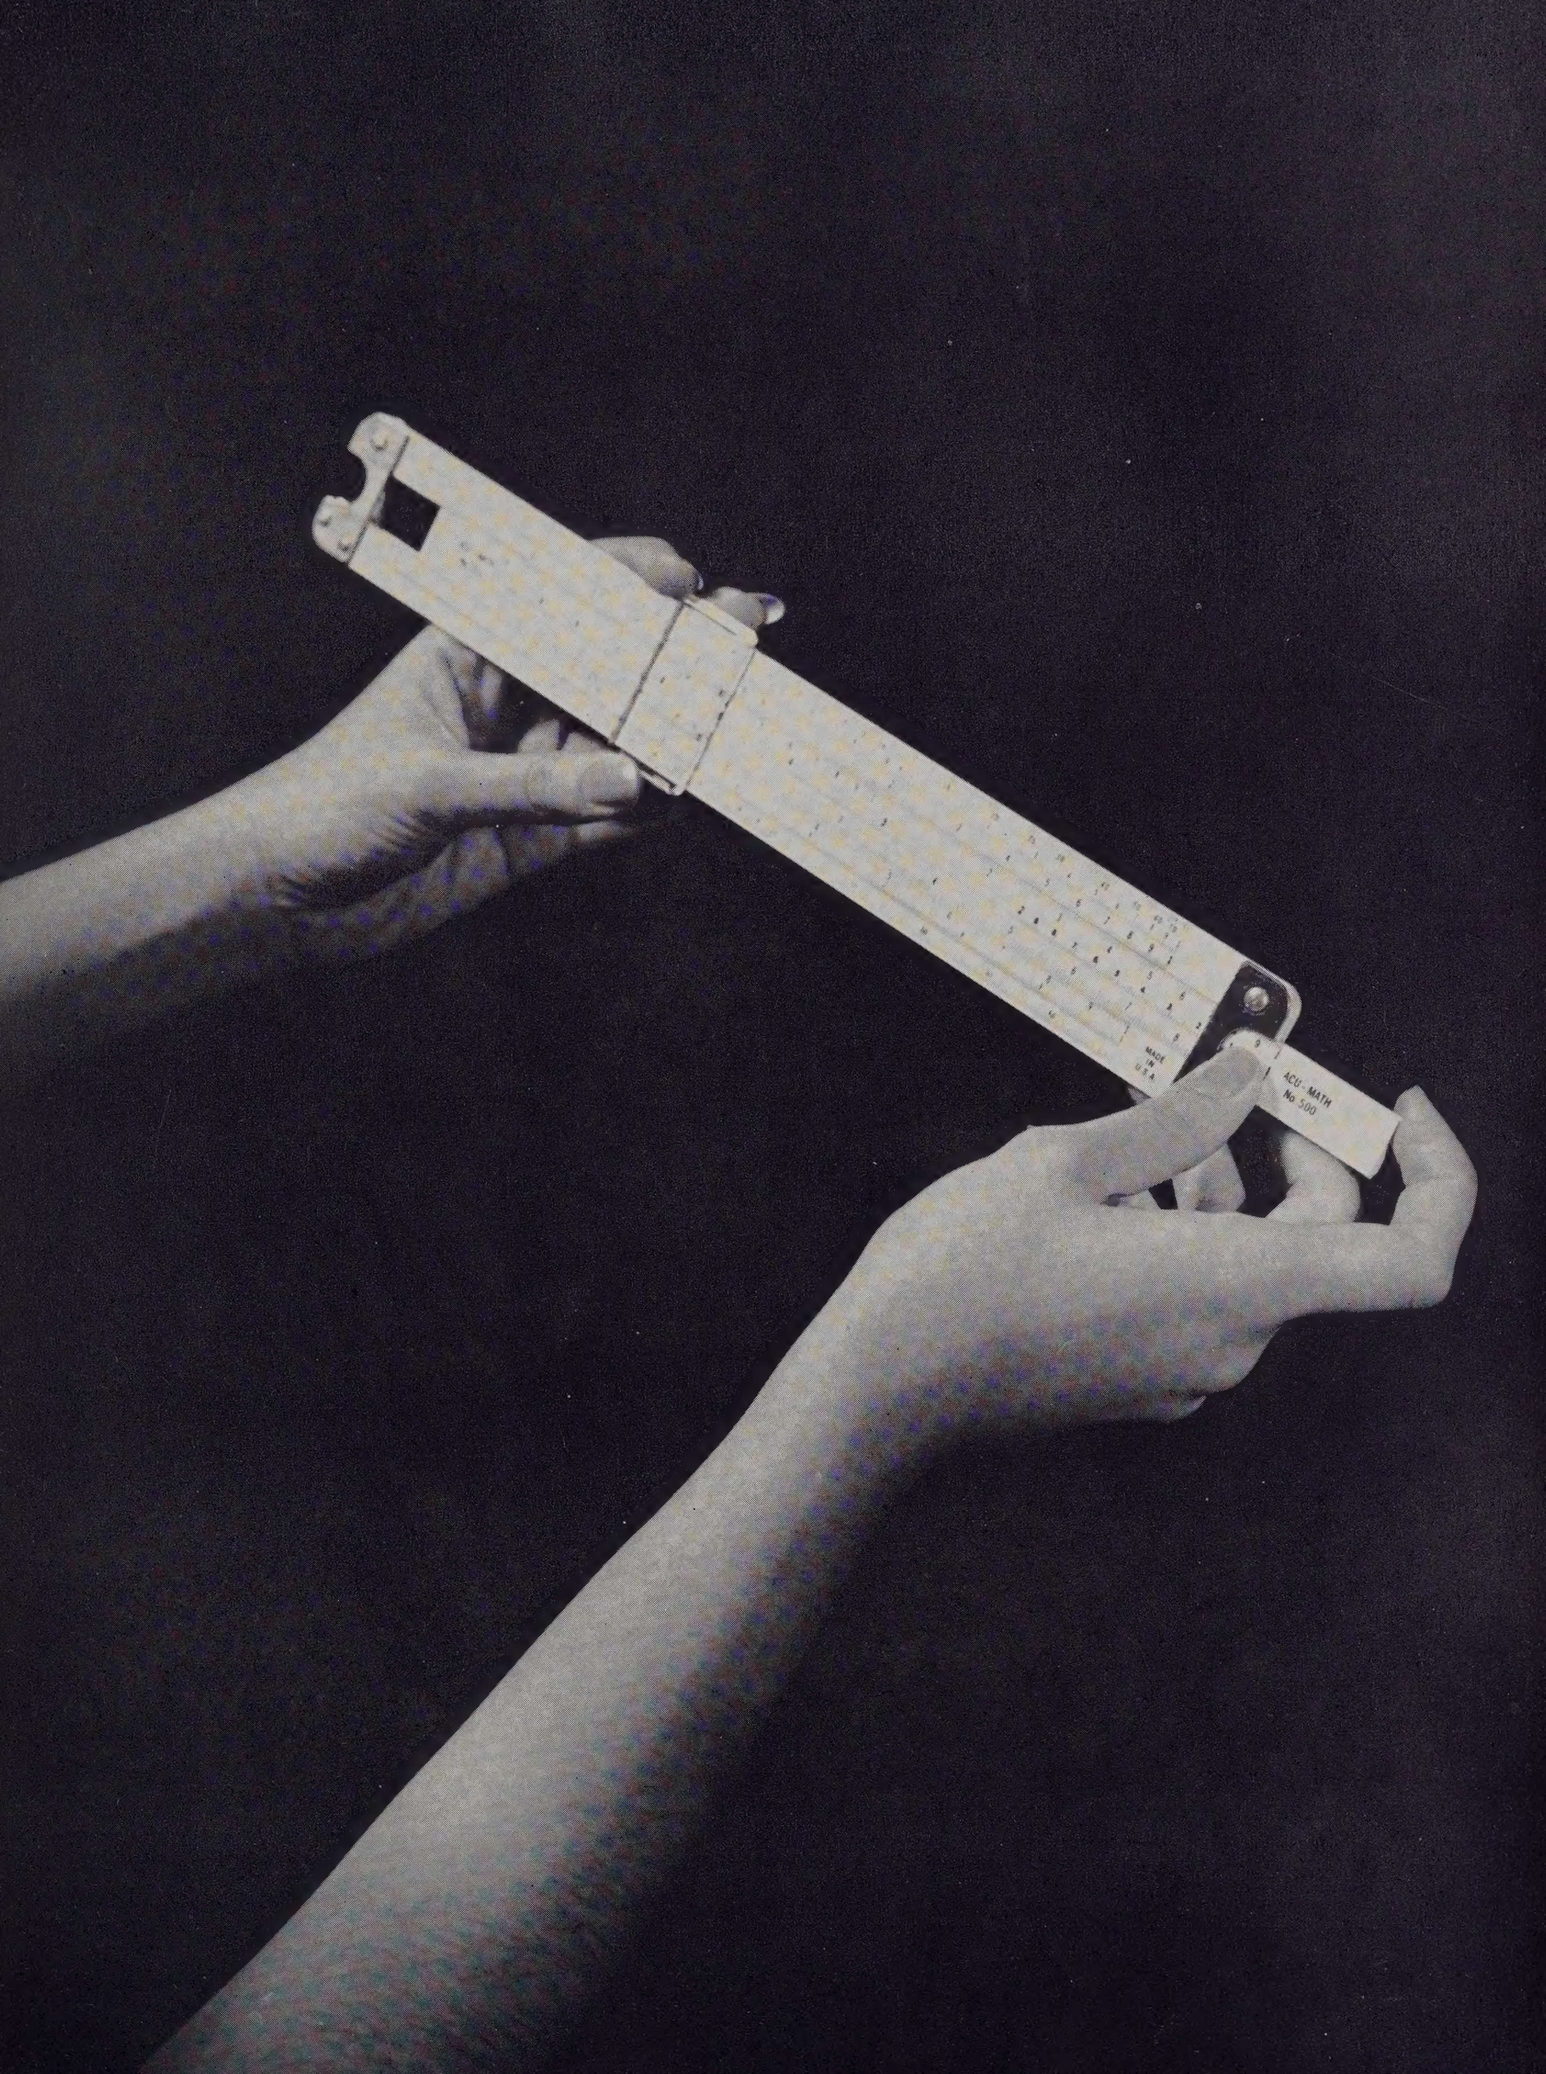
The Fine Art of LEARNING



MADE IN U.S.A.
ACU-MATH
No 500

In these typical corners of the painting studio, these students are learning to express themselves, and the possibilities of their materials.

Appreciation through admiration

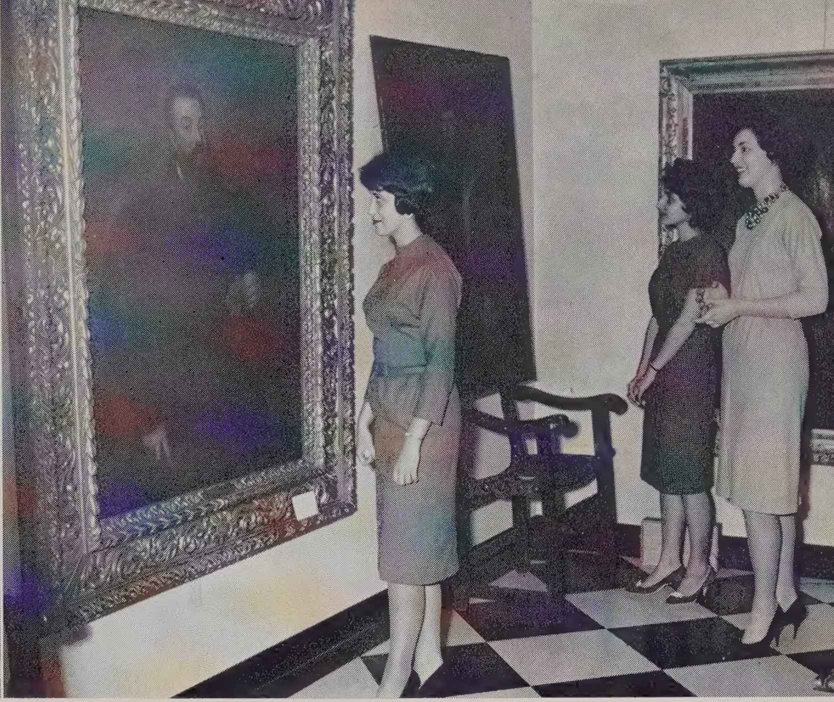
Fine Arts Department

To learn to express their ideas and feelings in the media of art, many girls elect to enroll in one of the various art courses available at V. I.

Whether a girl is an art major or a hobbiest, she may choose from such fields of instruction as drawing, painting, sculpture, interior decorating, lettering, and design. Mr. Al Todd supervises the fine arts classes, while Mr. Joe Ward instructs the commercial art groups.

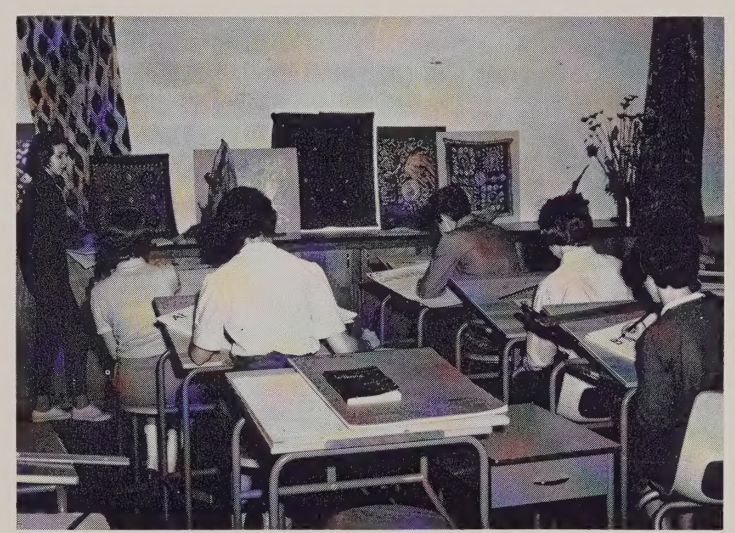
The Art Department holds its classes in the new Fine Arts Center, the most recent addition to the Virginia Intermont campus.

Is it really that old?



There's surely a hidden meaning in those eyes.

A series of exhibitions of the works of area artists are sponsored by the Fine Arts Department throughout the year. The series terminates with a collection of student works.



Learning to make Art practical and profitable, as well as beautiful.

It has that certain something.

Poise and talent they bear; Beauty as a halo they wear.

Ballet Department

One of the finest arts in the world is the art of dancing. Virginia Intermont students are given the opportunity to study ballet at the Constance Hardinge School of Ballet in Bristol. Classes are open to girls who wish to enroll in ballet for physical education credit or to those who have a serious love and appreciation for this medium of expression.

Miss Hardinge is a capable and devoted instructor of ballet. Her pupils have presented many performances of excellence for the enjoyment of area residents.

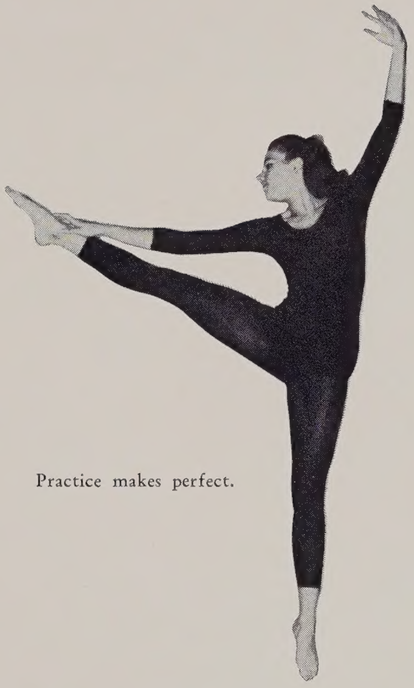
The quality of patient and skilled training is detectable in the work of her students, who will forever be grateful to her for her personal interest and guidance.

A line of beauty.

A line of grace.

A day in modern dance class.

Creative dancing is a beautiful way for a dancer to express her innermost thoughts and feelings. This expression requires years of training to develop true skill, grace, and form.



Practice makes perfect.

V. I.'s ballet students participate in the fun and frolics of Shore Leave.

"Drop of a Hat"

Drama and Speech Department

There is a practical application of knowledge in the Drama and Speech Department. Under the instruction of Mrs. Sally Cook and Mr. Richard May, students learn the arts of the theater (make-up and costume techniques, scenery design, acting, directing) and the arts of speech (debate, oral interpretation, training of the voice, speech therapy, radio and television techniques).

Productions in the Little Theater, the annual oratorical contest, and forensic meets at other colleges give the students further opportunity to increase and apply their knowledge.

Music Department

The V. I. Music Department provides many courses of study for the students interested in music as a major or as an elective. Courses in voice, piano, and organ are made available to them.

The chorus permits additional study through singing in chapel, the Christmas program, and the Spring Festival. One of the features of the chorus' year is a tour between semesters. The sextet has been organized to sing popular music for local clubs and organizations.

A highlight in the study of the music major is her graduation recital given near the end of the second year. Once a month a recital is given by a student in the department.

Kenneth Amada, a distinguished artist, brought a musical interlude to our campus.

The Music Department is under the direction of Mr. Ralph Osthoff. Teaching in the department are Miss Frances Eller, Miss Virginia Bates, and Miss Margaret Maxwell.

Department of Nursing

The most enjoyable job of all.

"Into the world to serve"

Occasionally a girl with a lemon yellow uniform and white cap can be seen scurrying across campus. This is a nursing student.

Commuting between Bristol Memorial Hospital and V. I., the nurses arrive at the hospital at 7:30 A.M. Here each girl works three hours per day, three times a week. While at V. I., they are trained in the care of medical, surgical, pediatric, obstetric, and orthopedic patients. A summer course in psychiatric nursing is completed at Williamsburg, Virginia.

Her heart of gold she has given to humanity.

First year nursing students are capped with a plain white cap. At Williamsburg a black diagonal stripe is placed across each corner of the cap. On graduation day, two diagonal stripes are placed across the cap.

Graduates of the nursing course receive an Associate of Arts degree, which enables them to take the National League of Nursing Examinations.

The nursing program is directed by Mrs. Marilyn Mauk.

Department of Languages

"In a little Spanish town."

"Parlez-vous Francais?"

The Language Department instructs students in English, French, and Spanish grammar, composition, and literature. From the study of the English classics to the learning of phrases much more complicated than "oui" or "si", students are given a chance to appreciate and to understand the literature of the world, both ancient and modern.

"Sunday afternoon culture."

If they keep knocking that little white ball around, they'll lose weight, the ball, or something.

This Hockey stuff can be very rough.

Physical Education Department

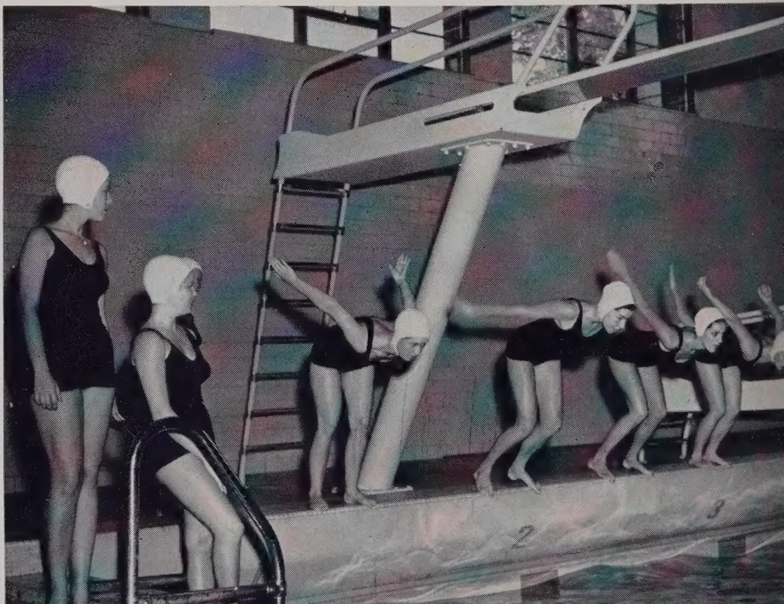
A variety of sports are offered on the V.I. campus. Students, signing up for athletic courses, often show indecision as to which course to take. Volleyball and basketball sound like fun, but badminton, golf, and bowling might be interesting, too. To add to the confusion, modern dancing, swimming, tennis, archery, horseback riding, and softball are offered.

Passing by the gym, one can sometimes hear a chant of one, two, one, two, . . . as each girl struggles to do the warm-up exercises. The Physical Education majors lead the girls in these exercises and referee games.

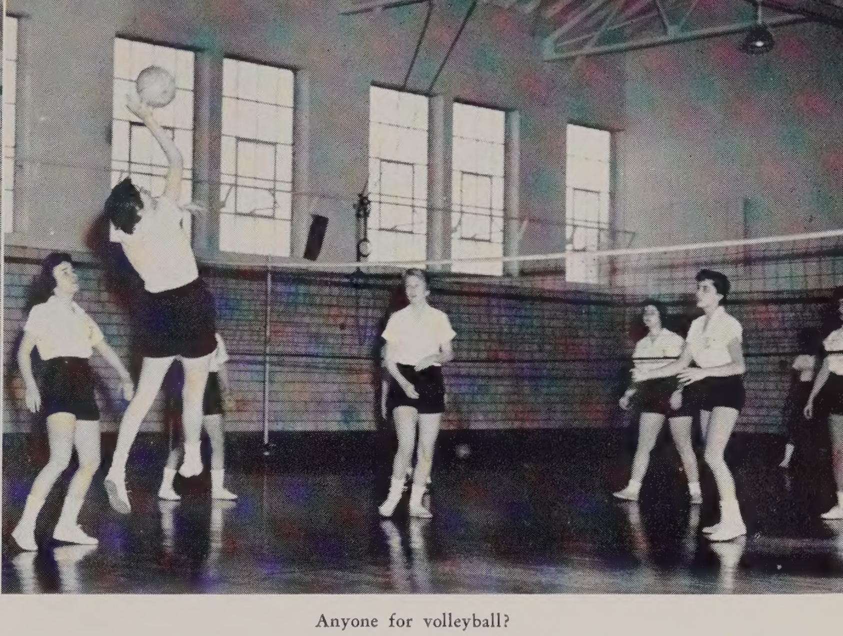
Departmental instructors are Mrs. Frank Barber, Mrs. Don Smith, and Miss Marie Hunt Stevens.

And one and two, and one . . . patience and physical stamina mark the members of H_2O.

On your mark, get set . . .



Hold that pose.



Anyone for volleyball?

Physical fitness is a vital part of personal health and well-being. The physical education department of V. I. prided itself on its accomplishments in this area.

Rainy day fun everyday!

The ingredients go round and round . . .

And come out here.

Home Economics Department

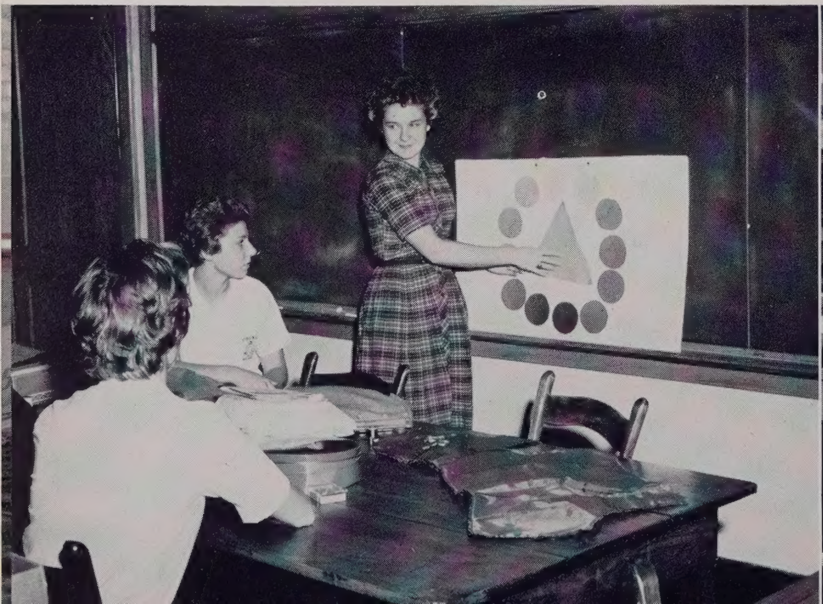
The purpose of the Home Economics Department is to prepare its girls for homemaking or a career in home economics.

The phases of home economics studied at V. I. include foods and nutrition, textile and clothing, and home management, interior decorating, and family health.

Careers considered by students in this department are teaching, dietetics, interior decoration, and home economics in business.

These Home Economics students cooked it themselves, so you can be sure it's good!

Home Economics students learn to watch their colors so people will watch them.

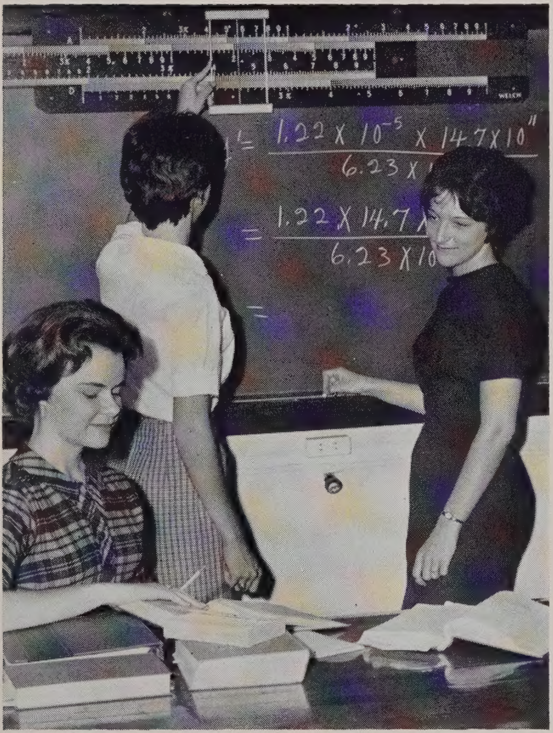


To succeed in this a girl has to have a good line—and know where to draw it.

Mathematics Department

Mathematics can be fun, especially in the classroom of William G. Buckner, head of the Mathematics Department. Classes in algebra, trigonometry, analytic geometry, and calculus are offered to those who need a strong mathematical background in their future careers.

The Mathematics Department is especially suited for students who wish to transfer to a senior college or university.

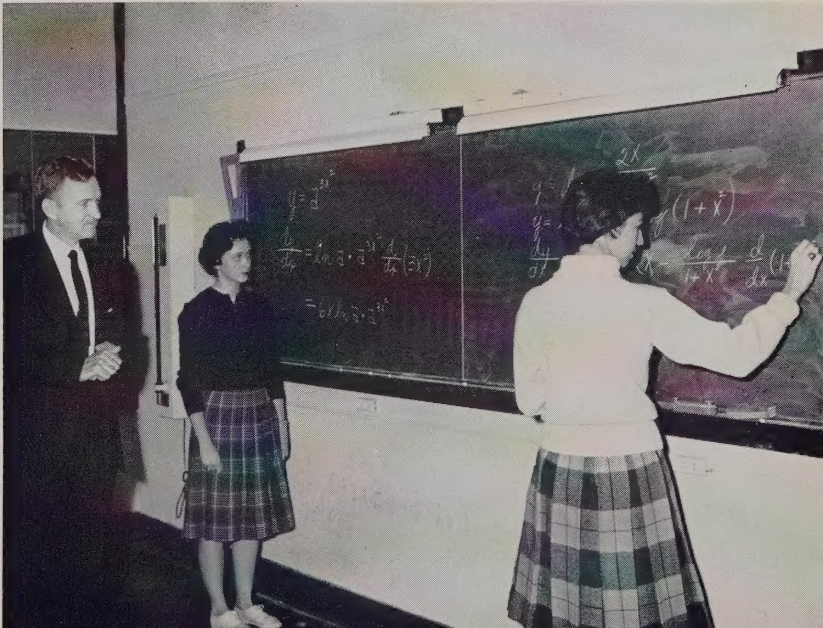


There must be a solution somewhere.

Clear as mud?

That's what the book says.

Gee, I hope this is right!



A typical class in Secretarial Science, learning to turn out the work and please the boss.

"I wish she wouldn't go so fast."

A knowledge of cash is something these girls may cash in on some day.

Secretarial Department

The Secretarial Department at V. I. offers an excellent course in the field of business education. The students have classes in accounting, business correspondence, shorthand, typing, economics, office practice, and business law. The knowledge that they gain through these extensive courses prepares them for positions in a business office as a clerk, typist, stenographer, or secretary.

For those students desiring a specialized secretarial course, the college offers a Medical Secretarial course. Among the other necessary secretarial subjects, the students take three biology courses and gain practical experience by working in the local doctors' offices.

Miss Mary Lou Smith, head of the department, is assisted by Miss Clara Longbrake, Mrs. Dorothy Myers, and Mrs. Joe Richards.

Learning to invest their own money, or just anybody's.

In the Anatomy class they learn to check blood pressure, like this . . .

And they meet some interesting people, like this man who is too far gone to say "Ah".

Science Department

The magnitude and significance of the research being done in the realm of science is rapidly gaining recognition in today's society. The importance of science cannot be ignored nor denied.

The Science Department at V. I. is composed of three major divisions which help to indoctrinate the students, through lectures and laboratory work, in the fundamental principles of chemistry, physics, and biology.

These Chemistry students look safe enough at the moment, but they may be in for an explosion.

Here they watch and record what they see. . . .

And here they listen and take note.

Religious Planning Board

The Religious Planning Board is a very active organization on campus. The board consists of fifteen members: including the president or devotional chairman of each of the fourteen religious organizations and the Student Government President.

Meetings at which new and old plans are discussed occur the first Wednesday of every month. These informative sessions help to bring the religious groups closer together.

Some of the yearly activities of the board include holding Vespers each evening Tuesday through Friday, organizing meetings at the beginning of the year between the girls and the religious director, and sponsoring the Harvest Carnival, Peanut Week, the Easter Egg Hunt, and Religious Emphasis Week.

Under the leadership of Miss Betty Smith, Religious Director, the board has coordinated methods to help the students achieve fuller spiritual education.

Baptist Student Union

V. I.'s B. S. U. serves as the link between the Baptist churches of Bristol and the Baptist students of Virginia Intermont. Through the media of Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, and the Young Women's Auxiliary on campus, the B. S. U. builds stronger and richer spiritual lives in its members. Plans for B. S. U. activities are made in the Executive Council and are carried out in the Greater Council.

The B. S. U. sponsors the campus-wide weekly birthday dinners, assists in the state-wide summer mission program, attends state conventions and retreats, and organizes both inspirational and social activities on campus.

Canterbury Club

The Episcopal girls at V. I. are united in their faith through the Episcopal Church in Bristol and the Canterbury Club at V. I.

Church-sponsored family-night dinners, church parents and discussion groups keep the members busy. The annual Christmas party proves both inspirational and enjoyable. "Peanut Week," one of the highlights of the school year, is sponsored by the Canterbury Club.

Found a peanut, found a peanut, found a peanut just now!

BETTY SHELLY, SUE MELNICOVE, PATSY HOPKINS, SUZANNE OTTO.

Student Christian Fellowship

The girls who are affiliated with the religious organizations not represented by denominational groups on campus are provided with a religious association through the Student Christian Fellowship. The main activities were an ice-skating party and a dinner at the Holiday Inn. At the Christmas party the girls made candy cups for the children at the hospital.

Newman Club

The Newman Club, though small, has an effective influence on its members. This club achieves its purpose by keeping the Catholic girls closely knit in their faith. Trips to the church convention and V. P. I. and the presentation of a talent show were among the many events in this year's calendar. The Newman Club is a member of the National Newman Club Federation. Father Hautz is the chaplain and Miss Ready maintains the position of sponsor.

Caroling added merriment to the Christmas season.

Wesley Foundation

Wesley Foundation is an organization for Methodist V. I. girls. Since Wesley is a part of the Methodist Student Movement in Virginia, some of the Wesley girls have attended inspirational state-wide conferences.

Activities of the Wesley Foundation include sponsoring Christmas caroling in the hospitals and homes for the aged in the Bristol area and participating in various social activities, such as bowling parties.

The ever-helpful sponsors are Mrs. Schubert and Mrs. Griffin.

Westminster Fellowship

As a club of Presbyterian girls primarily, the Westminster Fellowship adds a spark of Christian friendship to V. I.'s campus. Several activities the Westminster girls enjoyed were a joint fall outing with other Westminster Fellowships, and parties, one of which hosted a group from Emory and Henry.

Westminster also sponsored chapel programs and co-operated with other denominational clubs in activities during Christian Emphasis Week. Interesting talks and discussions throughout the year have been highpoints in the members' lives at V. I.

Y. W. A.

The Young Women's Auxiliary is an organization provided primarily for Baptist affiliated students, although all other denominations are welcome. The purpose of the Y. W. A. is to study and practice missions. Some of the projects participated in during the year were banquets, mission offerings, Religious Planning Board activities for local children, hayrides, and various community missions.

The 1962 Intermont Staff

The 1962 Intermont is a summary of your year at V. I. — your friends, your teachers, your activities. The goal of the annual staff is to provide a written record which will, in retrospection, recall a profusion of youthful memories. The staff of the Intermont has worked willingly and patiently throughout the year toward a successful realization of this goal.

To Mr. Cooke, our advisor, we acknowledge our appreciation for his guidance, as well as our respect and admiration. To all those who contributed their time and efforts the staff wishes to say a simple, yet sincere, "thank you."

The Cauldron

The staff of the V. I. Cauldron works unceasingly for nine months to publish news, features, and columns of interest. Students who are interested in the writing and mechanics of journalism make up the staff of the Cauldron. Each girl works under the pressure of deadlines and under the pressure of pleasing a variety of personalities.

The Cauldron informs V. I.'s students each month of future events on campus, outstanding personalities, interesting activities of area schools, and various features of Intermont life.

In the Spring, the Cauldron staff in co-operation with the Intermont staff, sponsors Publication Weekend. The Cauldron staff also directs the contest sponsored by Glamour Magazine in the choosing of a Virginia Intermont nominee for the "Ten Best-Dressed College Girls in America."

Phi Beta Fraternity, a national fraternity for women in music, speech, and drama, elects its members on the basis of scholarship as well as ability.

The activities of V. I.'s chapter, Alpha Beta, include selling food in the dorms to raise money for a scholarship fund, entertaining the veterans at Mountain Home in Johnson City, and giving programs for the student body. These and many other projects throughout the year make Alpha Beta worthy of its distinction as one of the two junior-college chapters having membership in this organization.

V. I.'s Nu Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa is an honorary organization chartered in 1927.

Phi Theta Kappa is to the junior college what Phi Beta Kappa is to the senior college. The requirements for membership include an overall average of 2.2 and at least thirteen academic hours in Liberal Arts, Home Economics, or Secretarial Science. Active members must maintain a point average of at least a B. Phi Theta Kappa members also display the qualities of leadership, character, and service.

The Athletic Association stands for one of the highest ideals at Virginia Intermont—good sportsmanship. Individual students are given the opportunity to participate in intramurals and to acquire the characteristic of leadership. Through the efforts of the Athletic Association, a wholesome competition in such events as Song Contest and the Effigy Hunt is maintained between classes.

The active members are those who participate in one or more intramural sports or club activities. At the annual banquet, terminating the year, a trophy is awarded to the victorious class.

Boots and Saddle Club

The '61-'62 riding season at V. I. opened with a bang by having one hundred percent membership in the Boots and Saddle Club.

The enthusiasm of the members provided the necessary spark for many enjoyable club activities, such as the picnic in the autumn foliage of Warrior State Park, the gymkhana, and the Christmas party. A reward of success went to all beginner, intermediate, and advanced riders who worked on the annual spring horseshow.

The year was terminated by a club banquet.

The Curry Club is an organization for those interested in speech and theater arts. Members of the club participate as actors, debaters, and crew members in the various speech and dramatic activities on campus.

The club's programs are suited to the members' interests. Some programs have been: a debate presented by Mr. May's debate class, a tour of the new theater, and excerpts from famous plays performed by members of the acting class.

The new theater has provided an ideal atmosphere and ample opportunities for the girls to develop their creative interests.

French Club

"Alouette, gentill alouette."

OFFICERS

Jackie Conn	President
Susan Matusak	Secretary-Treasurer

The French Club endeavors to acquaint its members with the French language through a practical application of what they learn in class.

The singing of French carols and the reading of the Christmas Story in French spiritually enhanced the Christmas party. For the enjoyment of the student body as well as themselves, the members sponsored a French banquet and decorated the dining room in the atmosphere of Paris.

The dream of every little girl is to become a nurse. The Nurses' Club aids the student nurses in acquiring the efficiency and maintaining the cheerful atmosphere which are the focal points of this child-like reverence. The members serve as a connection between the areas of college and community life and the student nurses.

Feature activities of the club are the open house in November and Christmas caroling throughout Bristol Memorial Hospital. The capping ceremony is perhaps the highlight of the year.

Under the leadership of Miss Barbara Frogge, the Student Activities Committee has added to the social and personal lives of the students of Virginia Intermont. Among the many highlights of the year were the trips to V. P. I., Smoky Mountain trip, open house, dances, and the free movies.

The committee, selected from the presidents of the various organizations on campus, has successfully planned and organized the social activities at V. I. this year.

Valerie Venditto, chairman of Student Activities Committee, and Miss Barbara Frogge, Director of Social Activities.

Art Club

The Diversified Art Club members include in their activities helping other clubs with their decorations.

The Art Club is in its second year on V. I.'s campus. The club gives the art majors and art elective students an opportunity for representation as a campus group.

During this year the club participated in receptions for local artists and club socials. Their most important project was the decorations for the Spring Water Show.

Mr. Al Todd, Fine Arts instructor, and Mr. Joe Ward, Applied Arts instructor, are the club sponsors.
